The Restaurants of

Brevoort Hotel

Invite Your Patronage

The primary purpose of Brevoort Hotel is to provide the best possible accommodation for the traveling public. It is essential that the restaurant service shall be of the very highest order and that the prices shall be moderate. The net result is better food, better served in a better environment, than might reasonably be sought at the same moderate cost under other conditions. Permanent residents of Chicago as well as visitors are invited to take advantage of this at breakfast, luncheon, dinner and late supper time.

Fred W. Upham would make a splendid United States Senator if he would consent to make the race for that position.

Joseph F. Haas has always made a good public record. He is a man of the people.

Thomas J. Webb, "the Coffee King," would make a good mayor of Chicago in the opinion of his many friends.

Charles Center Case, who made a splendid record as assistant state's attorney, would make a good judge.

Chicago's respectable bookmakers view the pneumatic race track proposition with suspicion.

Oscar F. Mayer the great packer is much talked of for mayor since his return from Europe. But he wants no office for himself. He generally picks a friend for a job like that and wins out on him.

William R. Skidmore always played fair as a Democratic leader. That is why he has so many friends.

E. J. Magerstadt, who made a splendid record as sheriff, is talked of for City Treasurer.

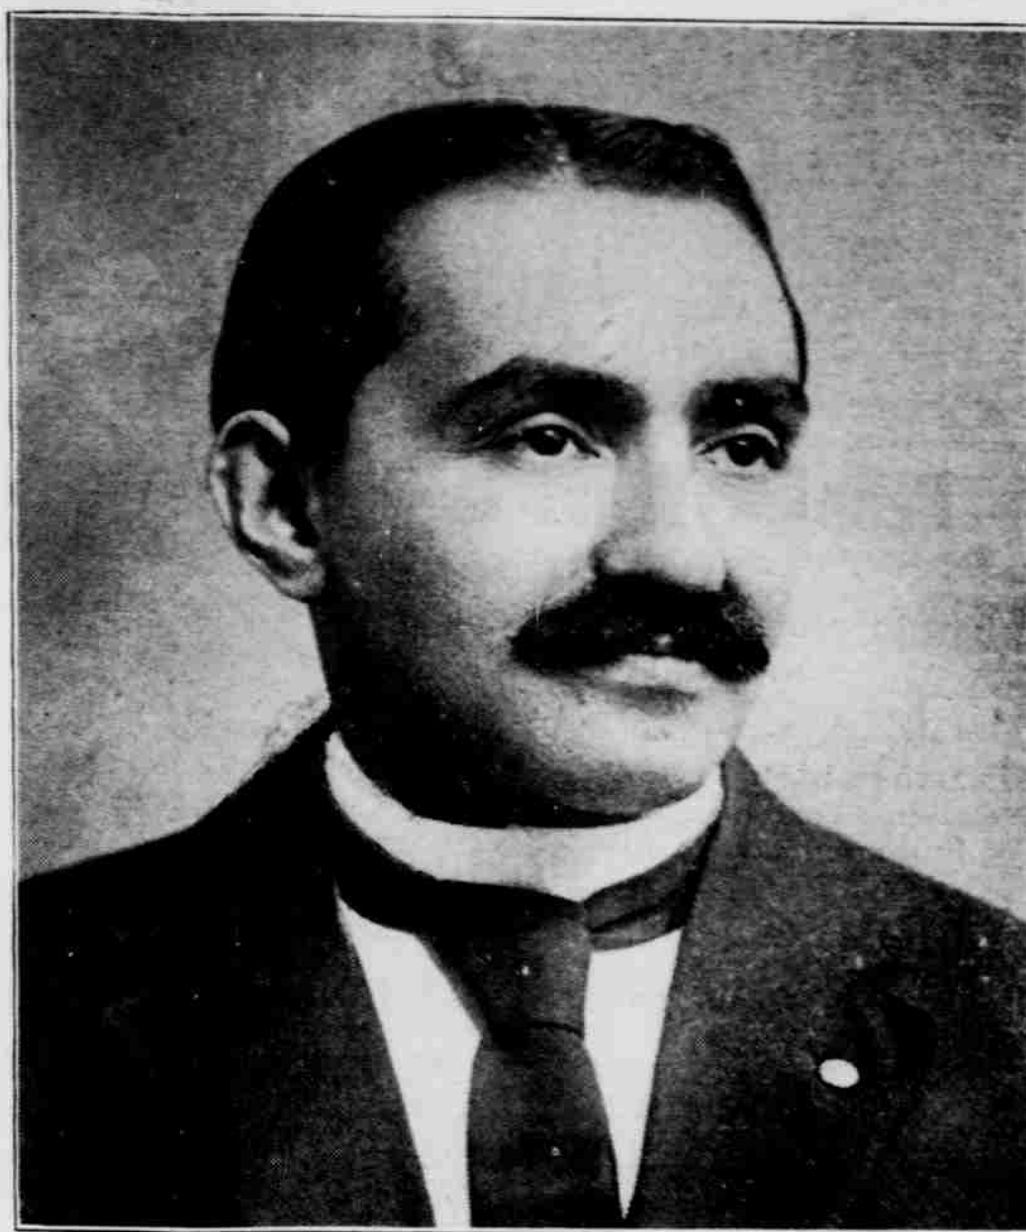

West Side Boulevard is ignored almost entirely by teamsters who drive across them at will and endanger people in autos.

Samuel Piser, one of the most progressive business men on Broadway and also on Roosevelt Road, is much talked of for City Treasurer.

Former Senator William H. Lyman is talked of for City Treasurer.

George N. Polales is the West Side restaurant king. His menu cannot be excelled.

Charles C. Breyer of the Charles C. Breyer Plumbing Co., is the able president of the Northwest Side Business Men's Association. Mr. Breyer and Tomaz F. Deuther, the wide awake Secretary of that body are doing much good work for that very important section of Chicago.

CHARLES APPEL.
Proprietor of the Famous North Side Turner Hall and Restaurant.

EAGLETS.

The Match Pants Company at Room 705, 36 W. Randolph street, is doing a big business. Its customers all praise its goods and methods.

The county clerk's office under Robert M. Sweitzer has never known a scandal. It is clean, efficient and ably managed.

William Ganschow, the well known manufacturer, delegate to the Constitutional Convention and popular member of the West Park Commission, is not treasurer of the West Park Board as incorrectly published. He is one of the most active workers for the best interests of the parks.

Frank Hogan, the highly respected President of the Heco Envelope Company, would make an ideal city treasurer.

The jurists whose terms expire next year and the political party membership in which gave them places on the bench are in alphabetical order: Albert C. Barnes, Republican; Joseph B. David, Democrat; Joseph H. Fitch, Democrat; Charles M. Foell, Republican; Oscar Hebel, Republican; Jacob H. Hopkins, Democrat; Marcus Kavanagh, Republican; Michael L. McKinley, Democrat; William H. McSurely, Republican; John M. O'Connor, Democrat; Hugo Pam, Republican; and Denis E. Sullivan, Democrat.
